Discover Odessa to host the American Grappling Federation

ODESSA, TEXAS- The Ector County Coliseum will be hosting the American Grappling Federation on April 2nd, 2021 in building G.

“The American Grappling Federation (AGF) is excited to return to Odessa, TX in 2021. We invite everyone to watch competitors of all ages and skill levels compete in the sport of Brazilian Jiu Jitsu,” said Chris Carlino, co-owner of American Grappling Federation.

The event will bring in competitors from all over the state. This tournament will bring an estimated economic impact of $60,000 into Odessa, with over 100 rooms booked at local hotels, and over 300 participants.

“We are thrilled to have the American Grappling Federation back in Odessa for the second year. Jiu Jitsu requires many skills and techniques. It is fascinating to watch,” said Monica Tschauner, Director of Discover Odessa.

Please encourage your subscribers/viewers to attend and support these adults and students as they fight for the gold.
